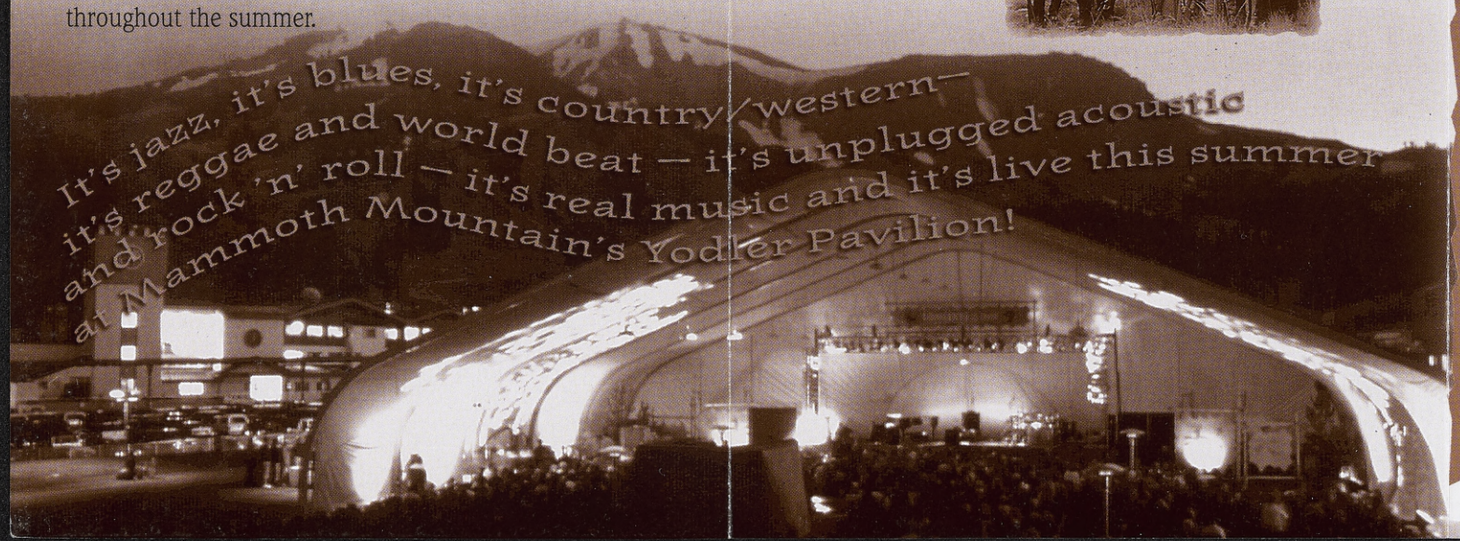
Yodler Pavilion Concert Series

JULY 5 — SEPT 1

It's Mammoth's show and you're invited! A Yodler Pavilion concert combines the country's finest musical talent with delicious food and drink, a stage glowing with magenta and gold to warm the heart and soothe the soul, and the spectacular high Alpine backdrop known as Mammoth Mountain. To quote one of our many patrons, "Where else can you experience an event such as this? There's not a bad seat in the house!"

Our 1995 schedule included contemporary jazz greats Richard Elliot, Dave Koz, Joe Sample and Kilauea; the "wizards of wooden music" City Folk, Alisa Fineman and Box Set; the down-home country/western sounds of County Line and the Cadillac Cowboys; and a radical mix of today's hottest alternative bands headlined by '80s punk rockers, X!

Our musical lineup for summer '96 is exceptional! Please consult the calendar and call for details as new dates and acts will be booked throughout the summer.



It's jazz, it's blues, it's country/western—it's reggae and world beat — it's unplugged acoustic and rock 'n' roll — it's real music and it's live this summer at Mammoth Mountain's Yodler Pavilion!

WestFest

A Tribute to the Art, Culture and Music of the Old and New West

SPONSORED BY WELLS FARGO BANK

In the 1870s, Buffalo Bill Cody and a colorful cast of characters created a culturally entertaining Wild West exhibition which drew on Cody's life as a scout, hunter, horseman and all-around adventurer. People came from far and wide to see his shows, and he quickly realized that the public was fascinated with authentic Western folklore and tradition.

Today, in keeping with Cody's original Wild West Show, Michael Martin Murphey and Mammoth Mountain are proud to present WestFest—a three-day tribute to the art, culture and music of the old and new West!

This summer, immerse yourself in stunning Western art and colorful Native American crafts; experience adrenaline-pumping rodeo exhibitions in the Wild Fire Corral; step back in time with historically accurate reenactments in Mountain Man and Native American Villages; feast on barbecue and other Western favorites; and listen to the toe-tapping sounds of country music's top performers, traditional cowboy singers and inspirational poets! We're even planning some eclectic musical surprises! Ah, yes... Buffalo Bill would be proud!
